Board Trustee Vacancies - Area 3 and Area 4

Dear Parents and Community Members,

The Central Union School District Board of Trustees has two Board Trustee Vacancies and we are looking to fill these positions as soon as possible. These two trustee areas are located on NASL, and may be viewed by selecting the following link ... Trustee areas.

We invite and encourage community members who interested in Board member service to file a letter of application, resumé, a list of three references and two letters of reference with the Central Union School District, 15783 18th Avenue, Lemoore, California 93245.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- California Registered Voter
- Resident within the boundary region for Trustee Areas 3 or 4
- Fulfill all other applicable laws, regulations and Board Policies
- Appropriate length of uninterrupted assignment at Lemoore Naval Air Station

Please note that a California driver's license is not required and you are able to retain your out of state residency status, if applicable.

The letter of application should contain reasons why the candidate wishes to serve on the Board of Trustees, the qualifications to serve, and documentary evidence of voter registration in California. A resumé shall include complete personal profile and background information to assist the Board in the selection process.

Board meetings are held once a month on a Monday night at 5:30 pm. Board of Trustees receive no compensation, however, you do receive health and welfare benefits.

Interested persons are asked to contact Traci Fullerton at the Central Union School District Office between 8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. at fullerton@central.k12.ca.us or 559-925-2619 for any further questions regarding this vacancy.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Thomas Addington
Superintendent
